

The international

Master's Programme in Geophysics

invites its students to a

Semester Opening

When: Friday, 16th of Octobre 2009, 10:00 o'clock

Where: Theresienstrasse 41/IV, room C419

We want to ...

- welcome our new first years
- provide an overview on details of the programme
- answer any questions you might have
- give old and new students and faculty a chance to get to know each other
