

Increasing evidence for significant solar forcing of temperatures and their disturbances over the 20th century

Overall mean minimum temperature curve (three-yr running means) for 44 European (above left) and 150 US-stations (left).
The "capital M" shape of solar activity over the 20th century (above right).

Vincent Courtillot, IPG Paris

Monday February 2nd, 2009 at 14.00 s.t.